

VOLUNTEER GUIDELINES BETWEEN FOOD OUTREACH AND VOLUNTEER

I. CONDUCT GUIDELINES

Food Outreach reserves the right to accept or decline any volunteer or offer of service at any time.

The orderly and efficient operation of Food Outreach requires that employees and volunteers maintain discipline and proper standards of conduct, which are necessary to protect the health and safety of all clients, visitors and employees. For serious breaks of conduct, the Executive Director will ask the volunteer to stop volunteering at Food Outreach. The following are examples of work rules which when broken will warrant our immediate attention and the Executive Director's intervention with a volunteer.

- Bringing a weapon on to Food Outreach property
- Failure to follow procedures
- Abuse of the building, equipment, or supplies
- Smoking on Food Outreach property
- Failure to obey safety rules
- Negligence where the welfare of a visitor, client, or employee is jeopardized
- Engaging in gossip, bullying or physical violence or threats toward a visitor, client or employee
- Being on the premises under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs or using alcohol or illegal drugs on or in Food Outreach's property
- Engaging in repeated unwanted and aggressive behavior towards a client, volunteer or employee that involves a real or perceived imbalance of power
- Conviction of a crime where such conviction reflects adversely on Food Outreach or affects the employee's ability to perform the assigned job duties
